12 YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Declaration

You must read this before signing below

In accordance with the above statement, I can confirm that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information provided in connection with this application, whether in my own hand or not, is true and I have not withheld any material facts. I understand that any non-disclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact may entitle insurers to void the insurance. (A material fact is one likely to influence acceptance or assessment of this proposal by the Underwriters: If you are in any doubt as to what constitutes a material fact you should consult H W Wood Australia Pty Ltd.) I understand the signing of this application form does not bind me to complete the insurance but agree that, should a contract of insurance be concluded, this application form and the statements made herein shall form the basis of the contract.
